Cause

Mr. Crutchfield is scheduled to be released from the Residential Reentry Center (RRC) on August 20, 2018. He is currently residing at the RRC located at 111 Taylor Street San Francisco, California, under prerelease status. Mr. Crutchfield is adjusting well at the RRC. He is attending weekly individual counseling at Dolan Mental Health and is attending weekly group counseling at the RRC, learning life skills. Mr. Crutchfield was prescribed Abilify to help him manage his depression and anxiety. He recently secured a part time job via A. Phillip Randolph Institute (APRI). The client would like to continue to receive the above services to help him with his transition to the community. An additional 120 days at the RRC will help the client achieve stabilization and assist in his transition from custody to the community.

The client signed the waiver of hearing voluntarily. His federal public defender was advised of the client's request to extend his residency at the RRC. The client's case manager at the RRC is supportive of the client's treatment goals and goals for a seamless transition to the community. In view of the above, it is respectfully requested the client's terms and conditions of supervision be modified to permit the client to reside at the RRC for a period of up to 120 days.

Respectfully submitted,
